DIPLOMA IN TRAINING OF TRAINERS (TOT)

The Diploma will see you gain knowledge about the core skills needed to design and deliver training programmes in any field, and will prepare you to teach adults, whether you are an existing teacher or lecturer or not.

Notting Hill College's online programme combines theoretical information and practical projects and focuses on the main factors required to implement both physical and virtual training sessions. It will enable you to effectively convey information to groups containing different personalities, adapting your methods for teaching adults and teaching children.

Who is the course for?

Anyone who wishes to take their career to the next level or use training within their own business ventures should apply and become able to lead engaging training sessions.

Occupations where this course is useful include teacher, trainer, lecturer, manager, coach, public speaker, instructor and blogger.

Learning online

Distance Learning is for self-guided, busy individuals who want full control over their education. With this mode, you will be given 24/7 access to the Learning Management System where you will find all course information and resources. Study and submit assignments at your own pace and have access to expert tutors who are there to support you.

With Hybrid Learning, you will receive all the benefits of Distance Learning plus up to twelve hours of one-to-one support with an expert tutor who will guide you through the course. The schedule is flexible and will be determined between yourself and our admission team in the UK upon enrolment.

On the Virtual Campus, you will meet with like-minded students from all over the world in taught sessions to engage in close-knit discussions of key subjects and discuss real workplace experiences. This is teamed with all the benefits of Distance Learning.
