It drives the meaningful pursuit of a deeper understanding of the 21st-century wisdom and skills necessary for global educational improvement and the leading of transformative change via engagement of rich, academic content and practical scenarios. Through the deeper understanding of your role and purpose as a leader, you will be able to shape your organization and add value to it through enhanced impact and inspiration of those you lead with essential leadership strategies.

Prepare for the many challenges facing school administrators and to provide hands-on opportunities for you to demonstrate proficiency and to practice leadership skills in your school. Examine all spheres of education and training and make you well positioned to select suitable opportunities from a broad array of options.

Who is the course for?

The qualification is suitable for teachers who are seeking managerial positions in their schools such as coordinators, supervisors, heads of departments and principals as well as established managers who seek advanced development.

Topics covered

The course is divided into 4 parts:

- Schools & Principals
- Leadership Expectations
- Managerial Responsibilities
- Vital Aspects of Practice

Learning Outcomes

By the end of this course, attendees will be able to

- Nurture the critical development, articulation, implementation and stewardship of a school's vision of learning supported by the school community.
- Understand the importance of and be able to create a positive school culture, providing an effective instructional programme, applying best practice to student learning and designing comprehensive professional growth plans for staff.
- Manage the organisation, operations and resources in a way that promotes a safe, efficient and effective learning environment.

Assessment

The qualification is assessed by assignments in the form of essays, presentations, reports and other projects.

- Understand the importance of collaborating with families and other community members, responding to diverse community interests and needs and mobilising community resources.
- Understand, respond to and influence the larger political, social, economic, legal and cultural context.

Learning online

Distance Learning is for self-guided, busy individuals who want full control over their education. With this mode, you will be given 24/7 access to the Learning Management System where you will find all course information and resources. Study and submit assignments at your own pace and have access to expert tutors who are there to support you.

With Hybrid Learning, you will receive all the benefits of Distance Learning plus up to twelve hours of one-to-one support with an expert tutor who will guide you through the course. The schedule is flexible and will be determined between yourself and our admission team in the UK upon enrolment.

On the Virtual Campus, you will meet with like-minded students from all over the world in taught sessions to engage in close-knit discussions of key subjects and discuss real workplace experiences. This is teamed with all the benefits of Distance Learning.
